Thayer Orders Probe of "Sample Ballot" Charges in Maui Election

"RAYMOND TRIES DESPERATE TRICK" REPUBLICANS SAY

Declare Sensational Story From Valley Isle Eleventh-Hour Political Canard

HARRY BALDWIN SAYS "ABSOLUTELY FALSE"

Point Hinges on Similarity of Sample and Official Ballots; Charge Taken Up First With Governor

Because of information which he has received from Maui to the effect that sample ballots for senator have been printed so near like the official senatorial ballot that he believes this difference might be easily passed over by unwary inspectors, Warren Thayer, secretary of the territory, today sent 22 copies of a circular wireless message to official polling authorities on the Valley Isle.

Word of the sample ballots was sent to the secretary by request of Dr. J. H. Raymond, who is said to be ill, the letter itself being written by H. C. Mossman, clerk in the tax office at Walluku. It declares that information leads to the belief "that an attempt will be made to have certain voters deposit those ballots in the ballot box, bringing out with them the official ballot to be used on the next voter under a chainless ballot scheme."

By wireless from Maui this morning Harry Baldwin characterized the charges as "absolutely false and made purely for political advertisement, as he (Raymond) is desperate."

Secretary Thayer says that while it is too late for an investigation now to go thoroughly into the facts, he will do what can be done to probe the occurrence.

Republicans in Honolulu laughed at the story this morning and several said they were convinced it is an eleventh hour trick directed against the G. O. P. candidates on Maui in the hope of benefiting Dr. Raymond.

Secretary Thayer's wireless message, sent out to the chairman of 22 polling places, is as follows: "You are warned against voting of a sample senatorial ballot printed on paper similar to official ballot; top edge smooth; black lines show through paper; words 'Sample Ballot' in small type beneath words 'Territory of Hawaii.' Allow no illegal use of this ballot."

With the letter from Mossman, which was sent to Governor Pinkham and by him turned over to the secretary for action, are furnished copies of the alleged dangerous ballots and prepared affidavits of two employees in the office of The Weekly Times at Walluku, where the ballots are said to have been printed.

The two affidavits are for Moses Walwaale, compositor and printer in the office, and for John Duarte, pressman and typesetter, and to be sworn to and forwarded here today.

The Walwaale affidavit declares in part that on October 30, 1916, "one P. J. Goodness brought to the printing shop of The Weekly Times, managed and owned by V. A. Vettesen, certain ballots with the word 'Specimen' written across the face thereof in red ink, for delegate to congress, senators and representatives, and after talking with the said V. A. Vettesen for a short while left the shop; that shortly thereafter the said V. A. Vettesen approached deponent and spoke to deponent substantially in the following language: 'You must not spread this thing out of or around or there will be trouble if you do'; that said V. A. Vettesen then approached one John Duarte, a pressman and typesetter employed in said shop, and addressing him used substantially the same language as used to deponent; that the said V. A. Vettesen then placed said ballots on the job book; that deponent then went to the job book and inspected said ballots, and found written on one of said senatorial ballots, 1500 written in figures, and on another senatorial ballot, the figures 500 written; that on the ballot on which was written the figures 1500, a cross mark appeared in the space opposite the names of Harry A. Baldwin and George P. Cooke, while no cross mark at all appeared on the ballot on which was written the figures 500; that said John Duarte printed said ballots, and on the 31 day of November, 1916, George P. Cooke, aforesaid, came into said printing shop, and after inquiring about said ballots instructed the said V. A. Vettesen to deliver the same to Charles Wilcox, and that thereafter said ballots, so printed, as aforesaid, were taken out of the shop of the said 'Weekly Times.'"

The Duarte affidavit states that Vettesen ordered him to print 1500 senatorial ballots with cross marks in the space opposite the names of Harry A. Baldwin and George P. Cooke; and to print 500 senatorial ballots without

ASHEFORD ASKS GRAND JURORS PROBE IWILEI

If Police Have Been Delinquent Their Conduct Should Be Held Responsible

HOLDS LAWS IN EFFECT AND MUST BE ENFORCED

Petitions Asking That District Be Kept Open Reported to Be Circulating

One of the developments in the anti-vice committee crusade against commercialized vice today was the submitting to the grand jury by Judge Ashford of lengthy instructions for an investigation of the question of vice segregation and particularly iwilei conditions in which he set forth the law and the fact that it is the duty of officials to enforce the laws as written. Another development was the reported circulation of petitions for the maintenance of a restricted district. These were in evidence where men are apt to gather in numbers and were said to number 50 copies.

A third was the statement by leaders in the movement that Ahin, the Chinese landlord of certain iwilei houses, will be arrested again today and every day hereafter unless the houses he owns are closed.

A thorough investigation of conditions at Iwilei, Honolulu's so-called "restricted district," by the territorial grand jury was recommended by Circuit Judge C. W. Ashford at 2 o'clock this afternoon, when he called the members of the jury into special session in his court room.

Judge Ashford read a lengthy written charge in which he cited conditions at Iwilei as they have prevailed for years, ending by requesting the inquirers to conduct a thorough probe. He charged that, should the jurors uncover facts calling for the return of indictments against offenders of the law, it would be their duty to return such indictments. The court recommended that the jurors call James D. Dole before them, pointing out that Mr. Dole has before consulted the court on conditions in Iwilei.

In part, Judge Ashford's recommendations were as follows: "Gentlemen of the Grand Jury: Charge is read. 'I have requested your presence at this time in order that I may lay before you, for your investigation and consideration, certain facts and conditions which now engross the attention of a numerous element of our city, and which bear in intimate degree upon our moral and sociological status as a community.'"

"I refer to the alleged existence of the unrestricted, or only partially restricted, practice of prostitution in this city, especially at Iwilei.

POLISH KINGDOM REVIVED

WARSAW, Poland, Nov. 5 (delayed in transmission).—A manifesto of Kaiser Wilhelm and Emperor Franz Joseph of Austria was read today (Sunday) and posted up, calling back into existence the ancient Kingdom of Poland. The document was read at noon to Polish representatives in the great Warsaw palace by the military governor, Gen. von Beseler. The square was thronged with people and a great demonstration ensued.

The quickest to realize the significance of the move were the students who attended the ceremonies and they at once incorporated into units, raised banners and paraded. There were volunteers by the hundreds for the Polish army, which the manifesto announced would be called at once.

Gen. von Beseler, in the name of Germany's sovereign, read the manifesto and it was translated by the palace commandant. Cheers resounded for the occasion and President Brudzinski of the city council gave thanks, asserting the determination of the Poles to be found worthy of the liberties conferred. He also requested the nomination of a regent to assume the leadership of the new government, saying that the time is not ripe yet for the nomination of a hereditary sovereign.

The ceremony was over in 20 minutes.

KUHIO WILL HAVE 2000 MAJORITY, PREDICTION NOW

Leaders in Close Touch With Situation Say Oahu Will Net Him 1000

TWO BOND ISSUE PLANS SURE, OTHERS DOUBTFUL

Breckons Says Democrats Concede G. O. P. Victory on West Hawaii

A "clean sweep" for Delegate Kuhio, with a majority of at least 1000 votes on Oahu alone, is the prediction of Republican party leaders regarding the general election tomorrow. The opinion in G. O. P. circles is that Kuhio will win "hands down," polling a larger vote than ever before.

Party leaders who have been closely associated with Kuhio and other Republican candidates during the campaign which closes today, have made the following prediction which covers not only the delegateship but the senatorial and house tickets and the bond issue:

In the senatorial ticket the party will elect two without any doubt on Oahu and might lose one, Correa, unless the fourth district voters adhere to the straight ticket. In the fourth district, on the house, the party will elect five and probably lose one. In the fifth district there are possibilities of Kuphea and Miles, Democrats, being elected. Aside from these all other Republican candidates will be elected.

On this island Kuhio will have a majority of 1000 votes, on Maui about four to one, on Kauai the voting will be about even; on Hawaii Kuhio will win by three to one. This is considered a very conservative estimate.

On the bond issue the belt road proposal and the public baths, building, will certainly carry, all other proposals doubtful. It is believed that the campaign for the various proposals was not started early enough.

Harry E. Murray, vice-chairman of the Republican central committee, predicts that on Oahu alone Kuhio will have a majority of 875 and that in the fourth district the Republican representatives and senators will all be elected. In the fifth district, he believes, the Republican candidates will have a hard race, but with every chance of being elected.

National Committeeman R. W. Breckons says: "Kuhio will have a majority of not less than 2000. On Maui the entire Republican house will be elected, but there will be a very close fight between Cooke and Raymond for the senate. Raymond, I believe, has a shade the better of it, but the race will be close.

"Kauai will elect Jack Coney, and there will be a clean sweep with a substantial majority for Kuhio. On Hawaii there will be a very substantial majority for Kuhio. In West Hawaii the Democrats concede the election of the entire Republican ticket with a big majority for Kuhio."

Breckons had nothing to say on the bond issue.

HARBOR BOARD TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETING TODAY

Members of the harbor board will hold a special meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock to discuss matters of importance concerning the waterfront at Pearl Harbor.

The attention of the board has been called to the fact that a two-story building is being built at Waian, just out over the harbor line. The matter was brought before the board by Sam Kanakani, territorial surveyor, in a recent letter and yesterday Chairman Forbes and his assistant, Wilbur C. Woodward, made an inspection trip to the place. Forbes will report on the visit today, probably recommending that the building be moved back.

Betting Comes Strong In Favor of Hughes; 277 Votes Is Conservative

(Star-Bulletin Special by Federal Wireless.)

NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Election predictions made here today are as follows: Chairman Wilcox of the Republican national committee predicts a minimum of 300 electoral votes for Hughes. Chairman McCormick of the Democratic committee predicts 364 for Wilson.

Betting in New York, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City, averaged up, shows Hughes a favorite at 10 to 7 odds.
The most conservative Republican predictions are that Hughes is sure of New England, 44 votes; the middle states, 100 votes; the Pacific Coast, 25 votes; also Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, both Dakotas, Kansas, Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, Illinois and West Virginia, 408 votes. Total, 277 votes.

Probably Republican, Ohio and Wisconsin, 37 votes.
It is predicted that the next house of representatives will be Republican by 15 to 20, and that the senate fight will be very close, possibly a tie.

EVERETT READY TO REPEL I. W. W. WITH GUNS AGAIN

Mayor Says Disorderly Members of Organization Were Told Not to Return

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
EVERETT, Wash., Nov. 6.—With Everett officials determined to refuse entrance to the city to the alleged disorderly gangs of Independent Workers of the World, the situation growing out of the pitched battle on the wharves yesterday is more serious this morning.

Ex-Sheriff Jefferson Beard of Snohomish county, in which Everett is situated, died today as a result of his wounds. He was a member of the posse, acting as a deputy sheriff, called by Sheriff McRae to prevent the I. W. W.'s from landing by steamer from Seattle.

Ed Buehrer, another member of the posse, is believed to be fatally wounded. Athol Gorrell of Spokane, a student and an onlooker at the fight, was shot in the leg and chest and another onlooker, Harry Blackburn, shot in the chest.

Mayor Merrill today issued a statement in which he said that at the time of the shingle weavers' strike not long ago many I. W. W. men flocked into the city and abused the officials and incited to disorder, and that they were ordered away at that time and told not to return.

The battle began yesterday when the I. W. W. forces reached the city docks on the steamer Verona from Seattle, and Sheriff McRae and a posse of citizens forbade them to land.

At least six persons were killed and more than 40 wounded, while more than 1000 shots were exchanged between the citizens and the I. W. W.'s. Among those seriously wounded is Sheriff McRae.

The Verona with its fighting passengers was finally driven off, steaming away Seattle-wards just as a second steamer, with 150 more I. W. W.'s, arrived off port. After a conference between the leaders of the two gangs, both steamers left, sailing together.

The battle was begun by the I. W. W.'s, who, when they were told by the police on the waterfront that they would not be allowed to land in Everett, opened fire from the deck of the steamer. The police returned the fire, the men while sending out a call for assistance.

Battle Was Brisk
Sheriff McRae called for volunteers amongst the citizens and 150 hastily armed themselves and joined him on the wharves.

A number of the I. W. W.'s jumped overboard and swam for shore, being taken into custody by the police.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 6.—Secretary Mahler of the local branch of the I. W. W. says that members of his organization in their Everett activities are contending for the right of free speech and that I. W. W. members have been persecuted at Everett.
The steamer Verona, which sailed from this port yesterday, under charter to the I. W. W., who announced that the object of the trip was to "hold an excursion," returned from Everett early yesterday evening, with two dead men aboard and 20 with rifle and revolver wounds. The sides of the ship and the deckhouses were pitted with bullet marks.

Entire Complement of the two steamers and their adherents ashore marched in a body to the headquarters of the I. W. W., where a stormy meeting was held. Following this meeting a lengthy warning was telegraphed to the mayor of Everett, announcing that the I. W. W. would visit that city in force today and hold a meeting for the purpose of "putting Everett in order."
Governor Lister, when he was notified of the battle at Everett and the threat of the I. W. W.'s to return to that city today, issued immediate or-

Manager McCormick Predicts Mr. Wilson Will Have Overwhelming Majority in Electoral College

Four businessmen of Oahu who were in New York last Saturday night heard Charles E. Hughes in his closing speech and united in a Marconi telegram to the Star-Bulletin predicting the election of the Republican candidate. The four are J. M. Dowsett, John Guild, J. A. Balch and W. G. Cooke of the New York office of Alexander & Baldwin. They wirelessed the Star-Bulletin as follows:

"NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 4.—We attended final Republican rally to-night at Madison Square Garden. Heard Hughes make greatest speech of campaign, with a wonderful demonstration. He has aroused tremendous enthusiasm, and we are all more than ever convinced that Hughes will be elected president."

WILLCOX CLAIMS AT LEAST 316 HUGHES VOTES; WILSON MANAGER IS CLAIMING 364

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless.)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Candidate Charles E. Hughes visited Republican headquarters today and thanked the workers who have been busy on his campaign.
President Wilson is now at Shadow Lawn, but will go to Princeton tomorrow.

Chairman Wilcox of the Republican national committee today predicted that Mr. Hughes will get at least 100 majority of electoral votes, and Vance McCormick, the Democratic chairman and manager, is claiming 364 votes for Wilson.

Note.—There are 531 votes in the electoral college, making 266 necessary for a majority and election.

DOWSETT BELIEVES HOUSE WILL BE REPUBLICAN BY AT LEAST 20 MAJORITY

J. M. Dowsett, now in New York, sent a wireless to National Committeeman Breckons this morning as follows: "Indiana, New York, Illinois, Ohio, New Jersey will give their electoral votes to Hughes."

"Maryland will go for Wilson. "Missouri is very much in doubt, with chances in favor of Hughes."

"Tennessee will give its vote to Wilson."

"Both Watson and New, Republican candidates for senator in Indiana, and Calder, Republican candidate for senator in New York, will be elected."

"On general elections Hughes will win."

"Believe house will be Republican by at least twenty."

"The fight for the senate will be close. While Republican chances are favorable, there may possibly be a tie."

"DOWSETT."

ISLAND MESSAGES SAY KUHIO WILL RUN AHEAD OF LINK BY BIG VOTE

Prince Kuhio will get a big vote on the outside islands, and there is little comfort for McCandless in the situation there, according to wireless messages which Harry Murray, vice-chairman and acting chairman of the Republican party, is receiving from Republican leaders.

Two of these messages this morning were from H. L. Holstein and Norman K. Lyman, both on the island of Hawaii. Holstein, a former national committeeman, wirelessed:

"Report today indicates on West Hawaii Kuhio 886, McCandless 241. House and senate Republican candidates safe."

Lyman wirelessed: "Hawaii will give Kuhio between 850 and 950 majority. Indications show Republicans will get all four representatives on East Hawaii and all four representatives on West Hawaii."

There is no contest for the senate on this island.
